Chapel Creek Newsletter

Spring, 2021

Welcome home to our Chapel Creek newsletter, Spring, 2021!

Chapel Creek News:

- The Chapel Creek annual homeowners' meeting will be held virtually this year. Details can be found in another document in this mailing.
- We are going to update our homeowner directory! Details can be found in another document in this mailing.
- Please feel free to contact the CCHA Board at 502-257-6358 (MELT) with questions or concerns.
- The Floyd County Recorder's office has official copies of the Chapel Creek Restrictions and Protective Covenants. To obtain them, visit www.floydcountyrecorder.org.

Thank you for abiding by our parking regulations and helping us to keep a safe and attractive neighborhood!

No sheds or outbuildings are permitted in the subdivision.

---

Do not leave grass clippings in the street; it is a safety issue and can become a drainage problem, too.

---

Just a reminder: The speed limit in Chapel Creek is 20 mph. Please obey the speed limit at all times.

Chapel Creek FAQs:

- Can I have an inflatable pool on my property? No, only in-ground pools are acceptable in Chapel Creek. However, if the public pools are closed again because of the pandemic, the board will not object to temporary pools.
- Can I have guests park on the street in front of or beside my property? No, guests must park on your driveway; however, if you are having a get-together for a special occasion, where multiple vehicles would not be able to park on the driveway, the board will not object to vehicles parked in the street. They must not be parked there overnight, however.
- Can I have signage in my yard? No, signage is prohibited unless it is a for sale or for rent sign. All other signs will be removed.
- Can I drive as fast as I want in Chapel Creek? No, the speed limit is 20 mph. Please obey it for the safety of our walkers, bikers, and children.
